Class History

We were assembled in the auditorium of old Leipsic High, this time for the final practice of the graduation program. At a signal from Mr. Garster, voices blended in the melody of our school song, and our thoughts went back to the day we were freshmen.

September 7, 1949, was the big day. We were met by an enormous swarm of upperclassmen who plastered our faces with lipstick and made us bow to them every time we passed them. As you can see, we all survived this and were beginning to get accustomed to high school.

We chose Phil Warren as our president, with Carl Maag, Ann Warren, and Jackie Taylor as vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. We had Mr. Christy as our class adviser. He has helped us through many difficult situations.

After three months of vacation we returned to school as sophomores. Rosemary Alt, who was chosen president, was aided by Robert Peoples, Jane Warren, and Robert Miller in the capacities of vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

Then came summer vacation. Time seemed to sprout wings, for almost before we knew it the second half of our high school career had begun. We were at it again -- this time with chemistry, geometry, and American history. There was no doubt about it. The old "Alma Mater" had plans for us!

Serving us well as class officers were Tom Seibeneck, president; Phil Warren, vice-president; Ann Warren, secretary; and Jane Warren treasurer.

The Seniors were gone before we knew it, leaving the halls a little empty and the lunch line somewhat shorter. It was then that we realized what it would be like in the fall. Everyone loved that feeling of superiority which comes from being a senior; but, of course, we missed the class above us. Thus, when September 7, 1952 came, we greeted the day we had awaited so long and began the most cherished year in our high school life.

Class officers for this eventful year were Jane Warren and Harold Otto, co-presidents; Doris Chamberlin, secretary; and Ann Warren, treasurer.

The year was an eventful one even though we were kept busy having bake sales, soup suppers, selling pencils, pennants, and Christmas cards and many other things to make money for our Senior trip.

We hope to go to New York City and stop in Washington D. C. and other points of interest. Our trip has been scheduled for the latter part of May. We shall always remember those happy days in Leipsic High School.

CLASS PROPHECY

Doris Chamberlin

Having made my millions
By writing poetry,
I'll look up my old classmates,
And this is what I'll see.

Rosemary Alt

Rosemary Alt is doing fine
With a professional basketball team;
She plays the game to win it,
And she's always on the beam.

Rosemary Ellerbrock

Rosemary Ellerbrock is a typist,
And she's always in demand,
For her expert typing ability
Is acclaimed throughout the land.

Betty Beam

Betty Beam is a nurse,
And no one would suspect
That one of her famous patients
Is the movie star, "Don Juan" Brecht.

Richard Morris

Dick Morris owns a chain of theaters,
And his projectionists are all the best;
He trains each one himself,
And puts them to every test.

Bonnie Henry

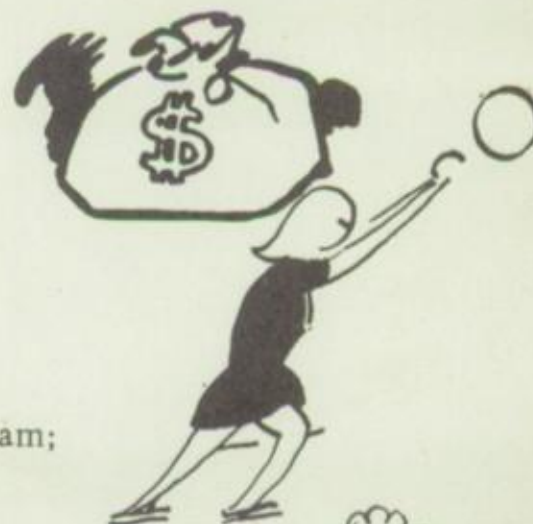

Bonnie Henry's artistic creations
Have been acclaimed far and wide;
They're tattooed on her husband's chest,
And he's a lifeguard at "Oceanside".

Richard Kohls

I went to see a name band
Which was appearing at Lavole's,
And I discovered that their tuba player
Was a former classmate, Richard Kohls.

Fred Claybaugh

Fred Claybaugh is a papa,
And he told me he's teaching his kid
To do his work himself,
Like his papa always did!

Class Prophecy

Bill Mangas

Bill Mangas is having quite a time
Trying to pick a mate;
It seems, though he's partial to red-heads,
The rest is up to fate.

Kenneth Spangler

Kenny Spangler is a competent farmer,
And to repeat one of his earlier quotes;
"From 9 to 12 p.m.
Is when I sow MY wild oats."

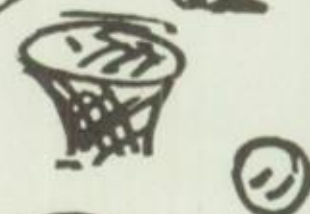

Sandra White

I hear that "Sandy" White,
A cute little gal I once knew,
Is at present, College Queen
On the campus of O.S.U.

Ruth Newell

Petite Ruthie Newell
Has a job she really enjoys--
She's teaching physical education,
And her pupils are all boys!

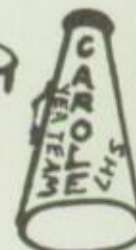

Ann Warren

"Sadie's" a social worker,
And she's doing just great;
There's only one little catch--
She's never allowed to be late.

Carole Kretzinger

Carole's quite busy these days
With her little cheerleaders three;
Whenever they perform, you can easily tell
They were tutored expertly.

Carl Maag

Carl's quite busy, too,
With his own football eleven;
They won their latest game
By a score of 48 to 7.

Laura-Cutshall

Laura Lee's doing fine
Teaching students to drive;
Of course it's not her fault
She loses one out of every five!

Carol Dietsch

Carol D. was born a farmer's daughter,
And a farmer's daughter is she still;
But she's changed the location of her home,
And resides near Marysville.

Jane Warren

Jane Warren is a successful agent
Of a famous T. V. star of the day,
Who has risen fast to stardom
From his role in our Junior play.

Robert Miller

And "Hugo" Miller, the T. V. star,
Just recently happily told me
His agent picked him for a coveted role--
The role of her husband to be.

Class Prophecy

Bette Fretwell

Bette Fretwell the tinest girl
From the class of "53",
Has changed quite a bit--
She now stands 8' 3"!

Tom Siebeneck

I always knew it would happen--
They've taken Lipton tea off the air,
'Cause when Siebeneck replaced Godfrey.
The jokes were too hard to bear.

Henry Niese

Soft spoken Henry Niese,
Who was never known to shout,
Is now the loudest referee
Of a weekly T. V. bout.

Luana Rupright

Luana's a happy housewife,
And she's bound to stay that way,
As long as her loving hubby
Continues to hand over his pay.

Jackie Taylor

Jackie and Babe are quite a hit
At the Sports Arena this season;
I hear she and Phil never married
For some mysterious reason.

Philip Warren

Phil stayed a bachelor,
And he's living a life of remorse;
It's not that he doesn't like Jackie--
But he can't get along with her horse!

Mark Tawney

Mark Tawney, a famous composer,
Who's always in the news,
Is reviving an old hit of his--
The ever popular "Study Hall Blues".

Max Kelley

Max Kelley is a famous coach
Who, from a humble start,
Attained fame and fortune,
'Cause his coaching comes from the heart.

Kenneth Brecht

"Don Juan" Brecht's latest film hit,
"Love Is Cold On The Moon",
Is scheduled to be previewed
In his home town very soon.

Claudia Snell

The ten best dressed women have been chosen,
And all top honors were copped
By an old classmate, Claudia Snell,
Because she couldn't be topped.

John Corron

John Corron, a veterinarian,
Takes pictures of his patients they say;
Photography's just a hobby with him,
But he wins more contests that way.

Class Prophecy

Richard Burner

Richard Burner, a sailor,
A dark and handsome sort,
Upholds the cry of the navy--
"A Girl In Every Port".

Dolores Brinkman

"Dee-Dee" and her "Honey",
Who is now her faithful mate,
Won the Mr. & Mrs. America title
For nineteen sixty eight.

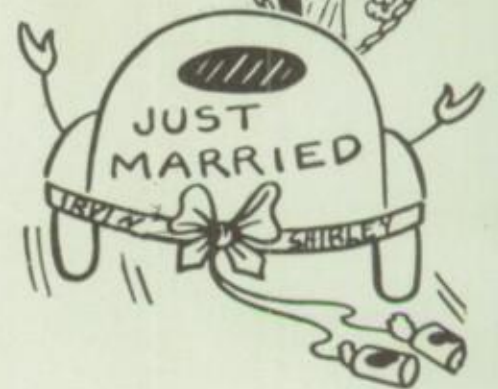

Bonnie Desgrange

"Dessie's" a registered nurse, now;
She pulls all her patients through,
And hasn't seriously fallen for
More than a dozen or two.

Joyce Smith

The quiet and lovely Joyce Smith,
In her own shy and timid way,
Is still running (from?) a husband,
And doing quite well, I'd say.

Shirley Morris

Shirley Morris is a Mountie
Feared throughout the land,
'Cause just like the old saying--
She always gets her man!

Irvin Winkle

Irvin's thinking seriously
Of turning to a life of crime,
So he can live in hopes of being captured
By "Mountie" Morris sometime.

Harold Otto

Harold Otto is a millionaire
Living in luxury;
He may not spend it wisely--
But he spends it happily.

Betty Niese

Betty Niese is very happy
Traveling throughout the land;
She's a grand public speaker,
And she's always in demand.

Donald Beckford

Donald Beckford's changed quite a bit,
Remember how quiet he used to be?
Well, now he not only talks--
But he talks quite fluently.

Bernard Berger

"Bashful" Bernie Berger
Has changed his tactics they say;
Now, he's running after the girls,
Instead of running away.

Bill Recker

The confirmed bachelor, Bill Recker,
Finally proposed, the lucky man,
'Cause his life at Findlay was too hectic,
And he was tired of eating from cans.

Class Prophecy

Vic Berger

Vic Berger is a prosperous trucker,
He owns his own trucking line;
And from every point of view,
I'd say he's doing real fine.

Virginia Swearingin

Ginny too has a career,
Which will last the rest of her life;
This glorified career is none other
Than being a good mother and wife.

Bob Peoples

Bob Peoples has a good business,
And all the money he's making
Has helped to prove beyond a doubt,
It's a successful UNDERTAKING.

Sue Robinson

Sue helps Bob all she can,
But she can't really help him much,
'Cause she has 12 little Peoples to tend to,
And she must do the house work and such.

Mary Ellen Hammond

Mary Ellen Hammond is swiftly
Twirling her way to fame;
And just think! She got her start
At a high school football game.

Dick Lichty

Dick Lichty is a preacher,
And once in a while he'll teach;
But one rule he sometimes forgets
Is "to practice what you preach".

Sharon Dillinger

Sharon Dillinger is in the movies,
And it's a wonderful dream come true;
She co-stars with "Don Juan" Brecht,
And just think! She gets paid for it too!

Ray Lloyd

Ray Lloyd is a geologist,
And he lives with his bachelor buddies;
He'll not be single long though,
'Cause rock isn't all that he studies.

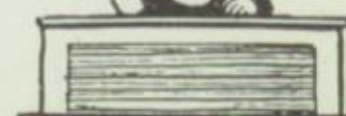

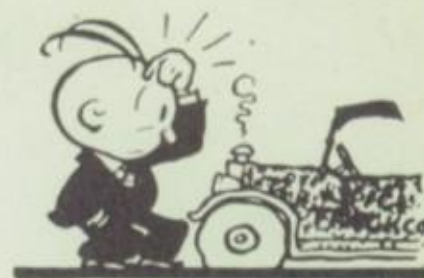

Junior Kitchen

Junior Kitchen is a Maharaja,
And has a harem of beautiful gals;
He's obtaining a flourishing business
Supplying dates for his bachelor pals.

Mary Lou Fralick

Mary Lou is a private secretary,
She's willing to work long and late,
Provided there's chance for promotion,
And of course, that she doesn't have a date.

These are the things I saw,
And now I'm sure you'll agree--
Fate's been more than kind
To the Class of '53".
